Dear Stan:-

Subject to your approval,

Here is your schedule for the 12 April visit with us, as
and I have worked it out on the phone:

- 1100 -- Arrive at Lexington Airport, and then depart for... (20 mins) met by V.D.
- ~~1130~~ - Arrive at Lexington Airport (READY)
- 1200 -- Luncheon with Lexington Lions Club at local Continental Inn
- 1315 -- Press conference immediately following luncheon, same place; same local reporters as will be covering the luncheon (we will hold the press conference to a strict maximum of 30 minutes, breaking up not later than 1345)...then the 15-minute drive to...
- 1400 -- Arrive Vince Davis home for an informal 90-minute seminar-style discussion with a few faculty but mainly students, probably not more than 15-18 people total, plus your party
- 1530 -- Break at Davis home, departing back to...
- 1550 -- Relax break for Turner party in guest suites at King Alumni House on campus (quite private), and then depart about 1645 for 10-minute ride to...
- 1700 -- Refreshments (45 minutes), dinner (45 minutes), <sup>~40</sup> and a few informal Q&A comments after dinner, with VIP local group, in private dining room at our new Hyatt Regency Hotel, breaking up and departing at 1850 for the 10-minute ride to...
- ~~1900~~ <sup>1915</sup> -- Public lecture in the Grand Ballroom in the Student Center on the UK Campus (a room holding 800-1000 people), followed by Q&A, and then departing campus on the 15-minute ride to Lex Airport for...
- ~~2100~~ <sup>2030</sup> -- Board plane, depart, wheels up around 2115

Here are additional items of information we would like to have when available:

- (1) total number of people in your official party (names too, if possible);
- (2) any special requests/requirements as to security, or anything else;
- (3) planned point of your arrival at our Lex Airport, presumably at the VIP gate of main terminal, or at far south end at Air Associates (the best general aviation facility here, and the government contract vendor of aviation gas, etc.).

Here are a few miscellaneous comments for your possible interest:

- Press. The press will be on hand for the Lions luncheon and the press conference immediately thereafter, plus the public lecture that evening on campus. Otherwise, we plan to keep the press away at all other times. The local press folks, unlike the Washington journalists, are not alumni of the Woodward & Bernstein Journalism School, and are therefore more tractable.
- Demonstrations. The local clutch of Iranian students picket everything, even faculty wives' tea parties, so maybe 20-25 of them will show up outside the hall for the public lecture on Wednesday evening. Perhaps, too, a few other anti-everything demonstrators will be on hand. But, in general, there is very little radicalism here, and our local security forces are pretty good. <sup>93</sup> I am anticipating very little trouble, if any, although we will fully brief the local campus, city and state police agencies, securing good help from them. When I tell you that we had about 6,000 students giving ex-President Ford a rousing standing ovation last year when he said the draft should be reinstated, you know what I mean when I say this is a fairly conservative campus.
- Seminar at home. I am scheduling the informal seminar with students on Wednesday afternoon at my home, because I can absolutely control that situation. If we do it on campus, that's state property, and on two occasions in the past seven years we have had a problem with eager-beaver reporters for the student newspaper who claim that the state's "sunshine law" allows them to attend any event on state property. This is a small risk, but I don't want even a small risk of hassles with pesty undergraduate reporters.
- Dinner event. We have sent out invitations to perhaps a total of 50 local area VIP's...such as our Governor, two Senators, Mayor, bank presidents, corporation chieftans, etc., and one ex-Governor (our legendary "Happy" Chandler, who is a great man), two ex-Senators in this area (Taft from Ohio, Gore from Tennessee). Replies are just now beginning to trickle in, and it's looking pretty good. I would expect maybe 35 or 40 total on hand for that dinner. Al Gore is one of those who has said yes--as you know, he is one of the new members of President Carter's IOB.

Switching subjects to two other matters. First, thanks a million for your blessings and support in helping us to get Scott Breckinridge and Bob Bovey here for WORLDVIEW '78 during 16-17 March. Second, with equal gratitude we express our appreciation for your thoughtful note a couple of weeks ago indicating that our super student Don Kazee has been picked thus far for your summer internship program. You are a great friend, and it's remarkable that you can find time for these friendly personal gestures in our direction in the midst of all your burdens.

Warmest personal regards,

Vincent Davis
